

RACES HERE AFIRE FROM FAR AT SEA

Flames Menace Japanese Freighter and Two Other Craft on Same Day.

Wrecking crews, to-day are scooping coal out of hold No. 2 of the Japanese freighter Bujo Maru, which yesterday went out an 8 O. S. because of fire on board. The Japanese ship left New York for Rotterdam on May 13. When 300 miles at sea fire was found and she turned and raced for New York. The Police Department picked up her call and the fireboat William J. Gaynor met her down the bay. One thousand tons of coal are in the hold that is on fire.

Two other ship fires were reported yesterday, both being put under control. One was in the Shipping Board's wooden freighter Boreta in the Gulf of Mexico, which was taken in tow by the steamship Cabrillo. The other was on the Lake Globe of the Mallory line, moored at Pier 34, North River, which a bucket crew extinguished.
